Gwendolyn Masin

Biography (2026/27)

Gwendolyn Masin is one of today's significant concert violinists, recognised for her expressive artistry, compelling stage presence, and distinctive musical voice. Performing worldwide as a soloist, chamber musician, conductor, and leader, she is founding artistic director of the annual GAIA Music Festival in Switzerland and of Dublin's International Master Course at the National Concert Hall. Through extensive multidisciplinary productions that explore music's power to communicate, she has established herself as an innovator in classical music. She holds a PhD in musicology and is the author of an award-winning book.

(around 550 characters, October 2026)